

Proof of relationship 300 days prior to birth of first child

We need to see 4 proofs of relationship which must be shown through printed documents, where both of your names can be seen and the date of the documented proof which can be easily seen is 300 days prior to the birth of your first child.

Options for proof:

1. Shared living contract (rent or mortgage) which includes both partners' names.
2. Shared bills- bank account or internet payments, mobile phone bills, tax payments or other joint shared accounts.
3. Legal partnership agreement (there are countries that legally recognize partners, in Israeli for example known as "Yeduim Ba'Tzibur").
4. Joint insurance policies: life insurance, apartment insurance or any other insurance that states both names.
5. Joint dated pictures (can be found on phones, digital cameras or social media).
6. Bank transfers from one to another.
7. Joint memberships to cultural or sport institutes.
8. Sworn written statement from an Israeli acquaintance- proof of acquaintance with the relationships- does not have to be notarized; attach ID copy and contact details to the witness.
9. Joint flights.
10. Joint hotel bookings.
11. Joint purchase invoices.
- 12. Options 1-4 are considered as hard proofs.
- 13. If only 2 hard proofs are presented, two further proofs must be provided.
- 14. If only 1 hard proof is provided, four further proofs be provided.
- 15. No hard proofs- five other proofs must be provided.